

Symphony Seeks Manager

The White Mountain Symphony Orchestra, formerly the Silver Creek Symphony, has been serving the White Mountain area for 35 years by providing an opportunity for area musicians to play together, to grow and improve as musicians, and to increase the love of fine music and the classics among the people living in the area. The orchestra has provided high quality programs to entertain, nurture, strengthen and educate in the fine arts and facilitated opportunities for the further development of exceptional young musicians. The symphony has been performing between 4-6 public concerts each year in Snowflake, Show Low, and Pinetop. For the past 12 years the orchestra has presented a Children's concert entitled "Music Is" for all the 4th and 5th graders in the region in an interactive setting which allows the students to see the instruments up close and personal and experience how the influence of music is an integral part of our lives. The program has inspired many young students to become involved in music programs in their schools and has enriched their lives.

The symphony is looking for community members and business minded individuals who have a love of music and the arts to become actively involved by serving on the orchestra's board of directors, as a general manager or supporting the orchestra at concerts and activities through the "Friends of the Symphony". The WMSO is a non-profit organization and would greatly appreciate any volunteers interested in sustaining this musical arts organization.
